Dear Parents/Carers

Your child is involved in our forthcoming performance which you will shortly be invited to watch. We are very excited to be presenting the Ancient Greek myth of Pandora's Box.

The children have chosen the roles they would like to play; please see your child's script for his/her individual choice. I have written the script with your children in mind so that they could choose a role confidently and without any feeling of pressure. Please let me know if your child tells you otherwise (via his/her planner) and I will help with this.

Your child can represent his/her character as simply or as extravagantly as you like. For example the Miseries and chorus could choose to wear a simple Halloween mask, or dress up in complete zombie costume! It really is up to you and either choice is effective.

Ideas for props and costumes:

Zeus: toga (white sheet and safety pins), lightning bolt

Epimetheus: toga (white sheet and safety pins)

Prometheus: toga (white sheet and safety pins)

Hephaestus: toga (white sheet and safety pins), hammer

Pandora: toga (white sheet and safety pins), tiara

Aphrodite: toga (white sheet and safety pins), flowers

Hermes: toga (white sheet and safety pins), staff

Apollo: toga (white sheet and safety pins), bow and arrow

Hope: toga (white sheet and safety pins), large white candle (unlit!)

Narrator: smart (party) clothes

Miseries and Chorus: Halloween mask, plastic/foam weapons, face paint, torn clothes.

These are, of course, ideas only and you are free to prop/dress your child as you choose.
